

TT No. 138: Barry Neighbour - Saturday 3rd February 2007; Chelmsford City 1
Hendon 0; Ryman League Premier Division; Programme: 64 Pages, £2; FGIF Match
Rating: 1*.

A visit to the Chelmsford Beer Festival was a good way to start the day before a visit to Melbourne Park, the new ground of Chelmsford City. The journey to the ground is only a short trip from Chelmsford Station and is certainly worth a visit. It has a large stand with further seating on the far side and was very tidy. The only regret is the running track around the pitch which makes viewing the game less attractive.

The home side had suffered four defeats on the bounce and were obviously short on confidence whilst Hendon were fourth from bottom and it showed. To put it in a nutshell, this game was dire! The winning goal came from a weak free kick which the Hendon keeper really should have saved but the ball hit the post and fell at the feet of the Chelmsford forward who could not miss from 2 yards.
