

TT No.193: Barry Neighbour - Saturday 31st March 2007; Loughton Orient 1
Caddington 2; Spartan South Midlands League Division 2; Attendance: 16;
Programme: No; FGIF Match Rating: 3*.

After an even first half the home side went into the break with a single goal advantage scored after 25 minutes when the forward was given space in the area to juggle the ball and line up a half-volley giving the Caddington 'keeper no chance.

The game burst into life early in the second half when a Loughton player prevented a quick free kick from being taken; an opponent from Caddington retaliated by throwing the ball back into the offender's face. All hell broke then loose when the player received an inevitable red card which wound his team mates up as they questioned the referee's decision???

The game deteriorated as some of the Caddington players became more aggressive responding with were several wreck-less tackles and plenty of moaning. Incredibly they got back into the game on the hour mark when a corner from the right was met at the near post by an unmarked attacker who had a free header. This seemed to spur on the ten men and they scored again nine minutes later. Three defenders were drawn out of position as the ball dropped over their heads to be fired home at the far post. There were a few more yellow cards but no further goals towards the end of this niggly game which saw the away side take all three points.
